

6516206121.txt

I have been an XM radio customer for over a year and a half and my constant travel has made standard radio impractical. All the channels offered by the satellite service are important but the traffic and weather allow me to be an informed safe driver no matter where I am traveling or what standard radio reception is like. To remove these services from XM Radio (or any satellite service) would be a great disservice to many people. Thank you.